TESTIMONIALS

"Thank you so much for moderating our event, the Effects of Mass Incarceration on the African American Community this past Saturday. You did an amazing job. Your expertise, experience and passion were an invaluable addition to the panel. On behalf of the Washington Bar Association Knowledge is Power Committee, thanks again!"

"I have entrusted Melanie to handle a wide variety of projects for me. I continued to be impressed by her superior work ethic and professionalism."

-Mitch Brooks, Co-Founder, Urbane Lifestyle & Entertainment Group

"I have been Melanie's mentor for nearly 10 years. Melanie has a strong service orientation and has dedicated her career to giving back to underserved communities."

-Kirra L. Jarratt

"I had the pleasure of serving as one of Melanie's law school professors in a seminar-style course. She excelled then and has continued to achieve success throughout her career, rising rapidly in public service in the uber-competitive environment of our nation's capital, and for all the right reasons. She is eminently competent in her field and stands as a game-changing administrator."

-Amos Jones, Esq., Interim President & CEO, Hepatitis Foundation International

"Melanie Bates Consulting, LLC has been a critical member of my team and has been essential to take our opportunities to the next level."

-Andrew M. Lee, Principal, Plwatcher Media Group, LLC

"Melanie is phenomenal. She has served with distinction on the Advisory Board of Free Minds Book Club & Writing Workshop for the past several years. Melanie's unwavering dedication to serving D.C.'s incarcerated youth is truly remarkable."

-Tara Libert, Co-Founder and Executive Director, Free Minds Book Club & Writing Workshop

"You turn ideas into tangible outcomes. That is a valuable skill. Thank you for your guidance and support."

-Chanda Marlowe

"I supervised Melanie in her role as President of the North Carolina Central University School of Law Innocence Project®. She relates well to all types of people and is delightful to work with."

-Page Potter, Former Director, North Carolina Central University School of Law Pro Bono Program

"Melanie was instrumental to my success as a first year law student. She gave me extremely valuable advice on the law school application process and continues to provide guidance as I matriculate through school."

-Diamond Wade, JD Candidate, Florida A&M University College of Law
